March 5 - March 15, 2012

Opening Reception: Friday, March 9, 2012 7pm-11pm

Dynamo Arts Association is pleased to announce the opening of HONEY ON MY LAPTOP; a collaborative project by Frances McKenzie and Kuh Del Rosario, available for viewing until March 15.

For this exhibition, McKenzie and Del Rosario contemplate the process of artmaking through a performance based project. In their short film set in Dynamo, the viewer gets a voyeuristic look at fantasies and ideas revealed when making art. Specifically exploring Del Rosario's art practice, HONEY ON MY LAPTOP is dripping with materiality and tactile explorations.

Frances McKenzie is an artist and graphic designer from Montreal, QC with her BFA from Concordia University. McKenzie has been involved in many digital projects. Most recently she took part in the production of Ignite the Light, A Collection of Indian Residential Schools.
